Special Dispatch to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 16.—There was another day of filibustering in the House.

The Democrats are not disposed to exhaust their strength until they secure a quorum of their own party. They expect to do by Saturday, owing to the expiration of time.

The vote upon adjournment to-day shows that,

including the Democrats, there are 149 members in the House. It is probable before Saturday they will have secured a quorum. The Democrats will be a practical working party quorum remains to be seen. The Democrats made a record in the House to-day which will be remembered for years. They have shown that there was nothing to be gained by squan-dering the day in filibustering. The Republicans proposed a TRUCE

until Saturday, and that the two days intervening should be devoted to public business. The proposition was rejected by the Democrats with shouts of derision. Democrats must, therefore, accept the responsibility for having given way to nobody. By whom instructed? By the Democratic caucus, controlled by revolutionary leaders, of which he himself is the voluntary chief.

The Democrats would not even permit the venerable Alexander Stephens to speak. He asked to be heard for three minutes.

THE HOWLING MOB

behind his rolling chair (for even the revolutionists did not dare to face him) howled him down with cries of "regular order," and it is even said that those who sat near could hear in cowardly undertones the cry, "Make the old man keep his mouth shut. They did not dare to have him open it. Silenced for the first time by the House and by his own party,

Alexander Stephens, in his clear, earnest voice, as heard privately to say, "But the time will come when they will be glad to hear me."

The significance of that utterance the Democrats may soon learn to their dismay. It is known that there are forty to fifty Democrats in the House who are not in sympathy with the Southern policy of the President, who are heartily opposed to this movement.

They say that if it had been submitted to a Democratic caucus, it would have been rejected by a vote of 100 to 50. The Democrats are now in a position to do as they please.

They are now in a position to do as they please.

They are now in a position to do as they please.

THE PERFORMANCE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 16.—Immediately after the reading of the journal of yesterday,

Mr. Potter rose and demanded the regular order of business, which was on seconding the demand for the previous question on the resolution on a special commission on electoral fraud.

On a standing vote there were but 89 in the affirmative and none in the negative; whereupon the usual objection of Mr. Potter, the motion was sustained. Mr. Potter then proceeded to read the report of the committee on the resolution, which was read by Mr. Potter, and then he
